

Student videos for students

During this year, we invited students of the 2nd year of engineering studies to co-operate. The students were given the task of developing motivational tasks on engineering mathematics, then together we made video tutorials, the students added a verbal commentary and we published them on youtube.com. Our cooperation will continue.